

KELLY AND KELLY HEROES AT FIRES; SAVE MANY LIVES

One Cop Breaks Leg Leading 150 to Safety, Other Carries Out Woman.

The name of the New York police force this bright morning is Kelly, and his first name is Frank.

Patrolman Frank Kelly of the West 20th Street Station, and Patrolman Frank Kelly of the West 100th may not even know each other by sight, but they ought to be twins.

Kelly of 20th Street sent in a fire alarm when he found a blaze in the basement of a grocery store at No.
146 West 17th Street. Then he ran upstairs to get out the tenants, 150 of them. He started them down the stairs, but the fire stopped them and they ran back.

"Follow me," said Kelly of 20th Street, and he led the way to the scuttle, which he forced. Then he led his blanketed flock across icy roofs to another scuttle, helped them down, and at last, when the job was done, slipped and broke his leg. He was taken to the New York Hospital and afterward home.

The other Frank Kelly—Kelly of 160th Street—also went to a fire. It was at No. 48 West 132d Street. It started in the basement and drove 100 tenants to the street. The Fire Department was handicapped by frozen hydrants and a second alarm was sent in.

Kelly of 160th Street wasn't sure that everybody had got out of the building and he went in to see. He stumbled over Mrs. Mary O'Rourke, who was lying on the floor of her apartment. Kelly carried her through the window to the street and revived her.

The janitress, Catherine Oliver, tried to put out the fire herself before sending in the alarm. She was badly burned about the hands and face.

Kelly of 20th Street is a war hero too. He carries two German bullets.

TAX RATE FIGURES REDUCED A LITTLE

Those for Manhattan, Bronx and Brooklyn One Point Lower Than Announced Last Week.

Comptroller Craig issued a statement to-day saying the 1920 tax rate will be one point lower in Manhattan, the Bronx and Brooklyn, and two points lower in Queens and Richmond than the figures given out last week. He said "The tax rate in Manhattan, the Bronx and Brooklyn will be seven points higher than for 1919, while in Queens it will be four points higher and in Richmond eleven points higher. One-half of the increased rate in Richmond is due to the greater cost of the local county government which the county officers under the law mandatorily impose.

"The following will be the rates on real and personal property for 1920:

Manhattan . . . . . 2.39 Bronx . . . . . 2.44
Queens . . . . . 2.41
Richmond . . . . . 2.52
